

Saturday 24th June 2017

Aultbea, Wester Ross

Grazing, Trees & Trout Workshop

A day of looking at practical ways to protect and enhance soil nutrition and improve productivity of croft land, hill ground and associated fisheries in Wester Ross

The day will start in the Aultbea hall with three presentations on

Eco-system nutrition in Wester Ross

Using trees to protect and improve nutrition

Woodland grazing and getting the balance right

Followed by an excursion to a local woodland croft and hill ground

The day is aimed at grazing crofters in particular, and other land managers that are looking to improve the productivity of their hill ground

Free to existing crofters and small holders, otherwise by donation

ADVANCED BOOKING ESSENTIAL

For a full programme and to book please contact:

Donnie Chisholm on donnichisholm@woodlandtrust.org.uk

Mob: 07502014387, Tel: 0343 770 5847

With support of

Forestry Commission Scotland
Coimisean na Coilltearachd Alba