

Sea trout, 333mm, caught in the upstream trap at Tournaig, Loch Ewe on 30 September 2010

This fish went to sea as a ?a large four year old smolt and has had one good summer at sea. Reading: ?4.0+

No sea lice were seen on this fish; however the eroded dorsal fin suggests that the fish has be subject to infection by lice in the past.

Photos by Ben Rushbrooke